Standing (50 - 60)

The room configuration and furniture combinations can be adjusted to suit your needs. Between Fifty (50) and Sixty (60) standing guests can be accommodated with room for a refreshment table and a small table for the session leader and speakers. The photograph (right) shows a mixed configuration with guests on arrival and viewing displays set up at the back of the room. Cabaret style tables, seating four (4) are set ready for serving light refreshments.

Seated- theatre style (40 - 50)

Up to Fifty (50) guests can be seated in theatre style configuration. A maximum of 50 chairs are available for audience seating. The chairs can be arranged to face either the front or back of the room. Facing to the rear a wall mounted display monitor is available for presentations to smaller groups. Facing to the front, presentations can be projected onto the front wall. This is best suited to a larger audience. Allows the most people to be seated. Suitable for an audience listening to a presentation.
Board Room (12)

A boardroom table is available to seat Eight (8) in comfort. Further configurations are possible using smaller tables arranged to seat Six (6), and if placed together, Eight (8) or Twelve (12). Works well for a small group.

Cabaret Style (24)

This table configuration allows for Four (4) guests per table. The square tables are of a size that would allow light refreshments to be served. The configuration can be relaxed, using the whole of the room, or confined using either the front or the rear, leaving some free space for guests to stand. Good for workshops.

Tables of Six (36) Classroom

Suitable for a training event or the serving of refreshments. Six tables are available that can accommodate up to Six (6) seated guests. Good for taking notes.

Horseshoe Style Tables (18)

Twelve (12) delegates seated on the outside of five tables arranged in a horseshoe formation allows for ample space for note taking and for discussion. A further Six (6) delegates can be seated on the inside of the horseshoe giving a seating capacity of Eighteen (18) delegates attending a presentation or training event. Often preferred by trainers.
